Mental health and wellbeing is one of the key issues facing our schools today. But, what is it and what can we do to support healthy emotional development?

The conference will include three keynote presentations on social and emotional wellbeing. Each talk will cover not only the latest research and thinking about the areas discussed, but also share ideas of what you can do in your school to help promote social and emotional wellbeing.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

- Introduction to Social and Emotional Wellbeing: what it means for your school.
Russell Postlethwaite
- Informing Perspectives on the Digital Mind: social media and the impact on mental health and wellbeing. Dr. Ed Chilton
- Mindfulness: growing emotional wellbeing and positive mental health in schools.
Dr. Bernadette Carelse

INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL WELLBEING: WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOUR SCHOOL

This talk will focus on developing our understanding of social and emotional wellbeing and the benefits that can be experienced by focusing on whole school approaches.

Presenters: Russell Postlethwaite and Emma Clink, Consultant Educational Psychologists, Futures in Mind Ltd

Snapchat... Facebook... whatsapp.... Instagram...

For children and young people in 2018, engaging with social media is not a choice but an expectation. But what are the impacts on social and emotional health? As, one thing is certain, the digital age is here to stay so let's get our algorithms in order and begin some digital reflection.

Presenter: Dr. Ed Chilton, Senior Educational Psychologist, Hackney Learning Trust

MINDFULNESS: GROWING EMOTIONAL WELLBEING AND POSITIVE MENTAL HEALTH IN SCHOOLS

Mindfulness is an emerging approach that can support mental health and wellbeing. This workshop will give participants the opportunity to experience mindfulness practices and discover the underlying theory about how it 'works'.

Presenter: Dr. Bernadette Carelse, Senior Educational Psychologist and author, Hackney Learning Trust
