

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST (SALARIED and Associate)

No EHCP Statutory Work – Flexible working

Part-time and full-time opportunities available

Soulbury A Scale 3–8

About Futures in Mind

Futures in Mind is a values-led independent educational psychology practice working alongside schools across Lincolnshire, Rutland, Peterborough, Cambridgeshire and Leicestershire.

Our work is grounded in:

- Relationships
- Inclusion and belonging
- Collaborative practice
- Psychologically informed approaches to supporting children and young people

We work with schools to develop sustainable, psychologically informed approaches that support positive outcomes for children, young people and the adults who support them.

Why This Role Is Different

- No statutory EHCP assessment work
- Focus on consultation, early intervention and systemic practice
- Salaried Educational Psychologist role
- Flexible working arrangements
- Opportunities for home working alongside time in schools
- Work within a small, collaborative practice

The Role

You will work alongside schools to provide:

- Consultation with school staff and leadership teams
- Psychological assessment and formulation
- Intervention planning and support
- Training and psychologically informed guidance for staff

The role emphasises early intervention, consultation and collaborative problem-solving within school communities.

What We Offer

- Professional autonomy within a supportive team
- Flexible working arrangements
- Opportunities to develop areas of professional interest
- Opportunities to contribute to the development of the practice
- A collaborative and reflective working culture, with strong supervision

Who We Are Looking For

We welcome applications from recently qualified and experienced Educational Psychologists.

Applicants must:

- Be HPC registered (or eligible for registration)
- Enhanced DBS
- Have strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Be able to work across a range of educational settings
- Hold a full UK driving licence

Interested?

For further information, including the Job Description and Person Specification, or to arrange an informal conversation, please contact:

Russell Postlethwaite

Director – Futures in Mind

Russell@futuresinmind.org

All offers are subject to satisfactory completion of pre-employment checks.